Wonder Cage

Ankita Islam, B. A. (Hons.) and M.A., Department of English, Visva-Bharati, Santiniketan, West Bengal, India

Again, a sleepless night searching for a dark patch outside and inside of my window.
The clock shows, 3 am Although
The night comes with her moon and stars above,
But
An artificiality of science breakdown its ownness
I was, I am, I will Wander!
How they sleep
at the night which pretended to be a day I eagerly wanted to go back
I wanted to hear birds quarrel
I wanted to walk on dews
I wanted to sleep in the dark patch of the night
But
My stomach's requirement Put me in invisible bars with no rules, no boundaries yet in a cage
where tears learn how to smile
Hands and feet work as machine
In The City of Joy!
